@JASPERFOLKMUSICFESTIVAL #JFMF

Welcome

to the 6th Annual

Jasper Folk Music Festival

Presented by the Jasper Heritage Folk & Blues Society

Welcome to #JFMF 2019! We are so pleased to present this festival to you from our hard working crew of volunteers who really believe that music and mountains need to meet each September. We know that the music will not disappoint and we look forward to seeing you on the dance floor under the alpenglow. Please take the time to check out all we have pulled together for this weekend in order to live your best festival life!

We kick off the weekend with our parade so please join us on the corner of Connaught and Hazel, Friday at 4:30PM! Be sure to wear your festival best! We will start at the white rock and make our way down the town trail towards the festival grounds. When we arrive we look forward to the truly amazing Warrior Women to signify the start of this year's fest. Please check out the amazing artisans and food vendors and take the time to enjoy the view of the stage from our beer gardens provided by Jasper's own Jasper Brewing Co.

We have workshops to share with you from yoga to dance to meditation and drumming. There is a kid's zone with bouncy castles (big kids are allowed too!). Kids activities will be happening Saturday and Sunday with Kiki the Eco Elf performing Saturday at noon.

Jam sessions on the main stage are new this year and you do not want to miss them! Artists from various bands will join to create music together for the first time and we have guided their song choices with some funky jam session themes. We have a "Bob Dylan Made Me Sing It" jam and our first "Gospel" jam as well as our finale jam with a Gord Downie tribute you don't want to miss!

If you see any of our amazing volunteers, be sure to give them a high five for this wouldn't be possible without all of their hard work!

See you out there folkies and hope you enjoy the show!

Cheers!

Cristin Murphy

Executive Director
JHFBS

Artist Biographies

FAST ROMANTICS

Fast Romantics have been blurring the lines between modern indie-rock and classic pop for some time, carving their own unique path into ears around the world. Led by singer-songwriter Matthew Angus, Fast Romantics have begun to earn a loyal following with their irresistible pop hooks, anthemic live shows, and Angus' emotive and personal approach to lyricism, often infused with the political and social chaos of the times.

BIRDS OF BELLWOODS

Toronto-based alt-rock outfit Birds of Bellwoods have wasted little time making an indelible mark on Canada's musical landscape, having amassed an impressive pile of achievements and accolades in a few short years on the back of their boisterous blend of anthemic alternative, folk, and pop music. Their highly anticipated 2018 album, Victoria, invites listeners to join the band's high-energy musical parade built on honest, emotive songwriting and laced with sweet, sticky hooks.

DAYSORMAY

An alternative trio from Vernon, B.C. who continue to shake heads with their epic sounds and impressive songwriting chops. Unsatisfied to churn out simple three minute rock standards, they continue to challenge their craft by hiking to new songwriting heights and attacking each new live show with the relentless energy of a band on the verge.

Visit daysormay's website!

MARK PERRY TRIO

Mark Perry is a master of writing songs that stick — paying tribute to unique characters and real events in rural Canada, and tapping into things that resonate with us all. Joining Mark Perry will be Mark Thibeault and Ian Olmstead, a trio sure to soothe your musical soul.

"New Jersey has Springsteen, New York has Billy Joel, northern BC has Mark Perry. These are the storytellers of their times and places," - music reviewer, Prince George Citizen.

FEW MILES SOUTH

Few Miles South is "making their way the only way they know how" with a slew of self-written, recorded and produced songs offering both old school nostalgia and a refreshing detour from today's predictable pop country. Blues and southern rock influences can be heard throughout their songs as well as nods to icons like Hank Williams and The Allman Brothers.

Visit Few Miles South's website!

GIVE 'EM HELL BOYS

The beginnings were humble but for The Give 'Em Hell Boys, what started as a side project evolved into a full fledged musical exploration of roots, country and rock music. Consistent gigs and a pickup truck full of songs in their repertoire kept this four piece band grooving and growing stronger in the Canadian music scene. Echoing the sentiments of their heroes, their brand of country is fused with attitude and high energy.

JESSICA HEINE

Jessica Heine is an Edmonton, Alberta, Canada based singer songwriter. A fine arts graduate with a BMus in vocal performance, although she revels in singing classical music, her passion is folk music and storytelling through song. "Her songwriting defies categorization just as her voice defies assumption."

- Lionel Conant-Artistic Director of Fort St. James Cottonwood Music Festival

OL' SAVANNAH

Ol' Savannah are a Montreal-based folk/roots band founded by Speedy Johnson and Bartleby J. Budde. Ol' Savannah's style has been compared to a mix of Tom Waits, Roscoe Holcomb, Muddy Waters, and The Pogues. Cult MTL readers voted Ol' Savannah into the "Best Country/Folk Act" category in the annual "Best of Montreal" survey. In 2018, the Ol' Savannah Hobo EP was nominated for EP of the Year by GAMIQ, the independent music awards in Quebec, Canada.

KIKI THE ECO ELF

"Kiki the Eco Elf" is a colourful, interactive children's entertainer with positive messages for children. Combining her experience as a touring musician and her passion for high energy performance, she entertains her audiences with dance party sing-a-longs, diverse cultural storytelling and musical games.

HUGHMANZEE

Hughmanzee is a band! They play sad pop music about ghosts and robots and their own semi-fictional deity "the Moonlord." Please love them.

624 CONNAUGHT DRIVE, JASPER • 780-852-4111

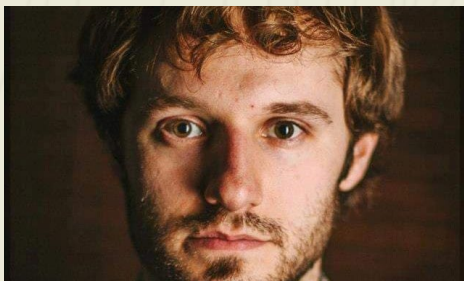

ATHABASCA BARNBURNER

After capturing the true spirit of days gone by, in a mason jar. This 3 piece string-band is delivering its own brand of folk music down from the mountain (Canada). Inspiring music lovers of all ages to get up and dance. Breaking the molds of tradition. Blending old-time clawhammer banjo, fine whiskey vocal harmonies, enkindling melodies, and tireless rhythm. Singing songs of the bible, the bottle, and everything in between.

Listen to Athabasca Barnburner here!

GUI BENOIT

A celebrated hometown hero, calling Gui Benoit a singer/songwriter doesn't do it justice. Writing songs that feel as comforting as your favourite sweater, you'd swear you grew up with them from the first time you hear them. Gui's natural stage presence, articulate lyrics and melodies pulled from the aether will have you dancing, and then humming them all night long.

GLEN GOSNEY

Glen Gosney, from Hinton Alberta, has performed professionally in various groups throughout the years such as Atlas Shrug and Lonesome Dove. The allure of Jasper finally overpowered him and now he resides there, continuously writing and playing music for himself. He hopes to continue working on his craft and draw inspiration from this diverse yet tightly knit community nestled in the beautiful Rocky Mountains he knew as a child.

MATTHEW CUSHING

It's been 23 years, almost to the day, since I arrived in Jasper. I fell in love with the mountains and the people of this town. I was lucky enough to meet some great local musicians, who invited me into their circle. I ran a successful Open Mic Night at the De'd Dog Bar & Grill for 4 years. From 2013-2015, I was the Music Coordinator for the JFMF. That experience opened my eyes to many new musical adventures and I'm honoured to have been asked to play at this year's festival.

SONIA DELEO

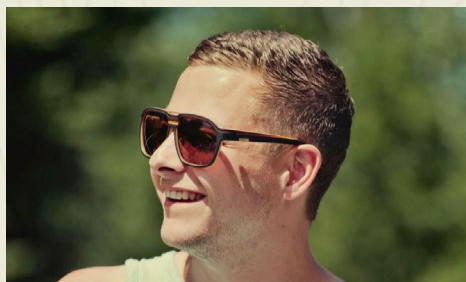

Born and raised in Thunder Bay, Ontario, Sonia got her start singing in church as a shy 10 yr old. Her sound has become broad mix of folk, soul, jazz and pop sounds, and she has no intention of boxing herself in anytime soon. Sonia's love of words, story and poetry are evident in her strong songwriting, and her intriguing melody lines give the songs shape.

Visit Sonia's Website here!

MR. WIGGLEZ

Local Jasper DJ, Jordan Anderson (aka DJ Mr. Wigglez) is a town favourite when it comes to getting a dance floor moving. Mixing up oldies, the hottest new hits and the best of the best beats, Mr. Wigglez will definitely keep you on your toes and shaking what your momma gave you!
